

Note on Instrumentation Designations:

Many songs in this volume are written for a specific instrument such as violin, flute, or B \flat trumpet. Some parts are marked for a generic “Solo Instrument in C” (or B \flat). In either case, these designations indicate that the parts are meant to be played by a single performer. Some songs may have multiple parts labeled by Roman numerals (ex. I, II), which indicate one instrumentalist per melodic voice.

Other instrument parts, however, are written in a more flexible two- or three-stave format and are marked “Solo Instrument(s) in C” (or B \flat)—note the “s” in parentheses. These parts always have the melody on the top staff with chord symbols (for those instrumentalists who improvise). There are also one or two harmony (or obbligato) lines that can work by themselves or together. Unlike the instrument parts described above, in which each part is meant to be played by one person, the more flexible format allows an instrumentalist (or multiple instrumentalists) to choose which line to play (or improvise around), knowing that all lines will work together.
